

D4I - Data challenge on integration of migrants in cities

Instructions for the use of the platform

The following snapshots briefly describe the functionalities of the platform for the visualization of the available data. For any additional information about the platform feel free to contact us.

A detailed description of the data is provided in the relative technical report that you can download from the "data" page of the website.